UNVEIL THE WONDERS OF THE HEART OF HELDERBERG
WITH ERINVALLE ESTATE HOTEL & SPA

Steeped in a rich history that dates back to the 17th century, Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa has seen a gradual evolution over the centuries from a modest Cape Dutch-style farmstead into the elegant 5-star boutique hotel it is today, all while preserving its unique heritage.

Surrounded by the majestic Hottentots Holland Mountains and side-by-side with some of Cape Town's top vineyards and iconic estates, Erinvale is both a luxury retreat and a relaxing home-away-from-home, where guests are invited to unwind and find unrivalled rejuvenation through the myriad activities the estate offers.

From beautiful, indigenous gardens to three gourmet restaurants, an on-site spa, and access to a Gary Player-designed golf course, Erinvale is made for lovers of all things luxury and lifestyle; from wine aficionados, to golfers, families, spa seekers, and outdoor enthusiasts alike!

Additionally, the estate's stylish interiors are designed with every modern luxury in mind, with ample that have been fashioned with the discerning global traveller in mind. These world-class services ensure that each and every guest feels like part of the family after experiencing an array of thrilling activities set against a breathtaking, vineyard-fringed view and mountain vistas.

Ultimately, Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa provides a luxurious haven for both active and outdoor-loving travellers, as well as those seeking R&R and a little reprieve from modern living; able to set their own pace and indulge in its diverse amenities. Beyond the 5-star experience, guests can venture into the surrounding beauty, where they're sure to remain in holiday mode with world-class hospitality and countless leisure pursuits at their beck and call as they explore the backyard beyond the 5-star offering.

LUXURY AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa consistently offers culinary excellence through its diverse restaurants, overseen by Executive Chef Stefan Bekker and his talented team. With an array of options ranging from refined fine dining to casual a la carte, the 5-star property caters to every taste and mood, eliminating the need to venture elsewhere.

At Stefan's, a culinary haven in its own right, guests embark on a gastronomic journey marked by a personalised touch. This fine dining destination exudes warmth and intimacy, creating an atmosphere more akin to a private experience than a traditional restaurant. Immerse yourself in the expertly crafted table d'hôte menu, savouring each flavour-filled dish that showcases a creative interpretation of the very best seasonal ingredients. Indulge in a meticulously curated menu boasting international inspiration and local flavours, expertly paired with a curated wine selection that ensures a taste of the finest South African offerings for all foodies and wine aficionados.

After enjoying a truly distinctive dining experience, saunter over to a personalised wellness journey where an extensive treatment menu fulfils all of your relaxation and beauty needs. Your post-treatment will include lounging by the poolside and soaking in the sunshine and mountain views, all while remaining ensconced in the estate's utmost care and complete holiday mode. The on-site spa is being transformed into an all-encompassing wellness destination, where self care is prioritised in all forms and much-needed 'me time' takes centre stage thanks to a host of diverse treatments available, all designed to reset your senses and nourish body, mind and soul.

For those looking to tee off beneath the verdant Hottentots Holland Mountains, the Erinvale Golf Course, located directly beside the grounds of the estate, is a perfect location to put your swing to work.

The world-renowned course is Gary Player-designed, has 18 holes, and is considered to be one of the finest golfing destinations in South Africa.

The impressive clubhouse provides all the appropriate amenities for golfers and even hosted the 1996 World Cup of Golf, where 32 nations competed for a title.

A SUNSHINE TOP-UP

The incomparable remote and tranquil feeling of being fully immersed within the Heart of Helderberg that escapes the overwhelming crowds of Cape Town, yet still an easy 30-minute drive into the city centre, makes Erinvale Hotel the ideal destination for those looking for a seamless combination of luxury retreat, surrounding nature and bucket-list holiday ticks.

The hotel is not only family-friendly for vacationers of all ages but also offers dedicated dog-friendly rooms for your furry friends. These dog-friendly accommodations provide direct access to a small, contained garden area where your pup can have just as luxurious a time as you. Plus, you can enjoy dog-friendly dining at the Oak Terrace, boasting ample shade and room to relax.

From cosy pet beds to water bowls and tasty treats, the estate has absolutely everything to make sure both you and your pup can enjoy an extravagant retreat together.

Whether or not your furry friend is up for a big hike, you can take advantage of the unparalleled trails scattered throughout the Helderberg mountain or even at neighbouring Lourensford, a must-visit for all mountain biking enthusiasts.

This luxurious haven also boasts a successful and multifaceted approach to its environmental consciousness and has successfully implemented a range of eco-friendly practices to minimise its footprint and positively contribute to carbon offsetting.

A newly installed solar system, complete with batteries and an inverter, now covers nearly 49% of the hotel's energy consumption, significantly reducing its reliance on the grid.

In a conscientious effort to further reduce plastic usage, all amenities are vetted to avoid single-use plastic; instead opting for glass and re-usable items.

The hotel's commitment extends beyond just environmental concerns and into community development, where it proudly partners with the Imibala Trust, a registered South African NPO focusing on empowering children affected by impoverished circumstances. This collaboration includes hospitality support and training for interested candidates, now entering its third successful year with inspiring success stories transitioning into permanent employment and roles within the hotel operations.

Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa continues to set a standard for sustainable luxury, proving that responsible tourism can coexist harmoniously with unmatched hospitality.

Get ready for a plethora of experiences at Erinvale Estate Hotel & Spa, showcasing swoon-worthy interiors, luxurious amenities and countless opportunities to immerse yourself in the captivating landscape. Before you realise it, your bags will be packed, and rest assured, the bubbly is already on ice, awaiting your welcome.
